FOR RELEASE ON RECEIPT

Artists entering the Cleveland Museum of Art's 1976 May Show are advised that the waiver of liability contained in the Show's entry form -- which states that the Museum cannot be responsible for loss or damage to works entered in the Show -- has been rescinded.

Since entry forms were printed and distributed, the Museum has obtained insurance against loss or damage to May Show entries while on the premises of the Museum.

The insurance is in effect from the first day of entry week, October 16, 1976, until January 15, 1977, two weeks after the close of the Show. The Museum still reserves the right to dispose of works not claimed by artists by that date.

The 1976 May Show will open November 24 and continue on view through January 2, 1977.

More specific information can be obtained by calling the May Show office at the Cleveland Museum of Art, 421-7340, Ext. 252.
